If You See Something, Say Something
For safety and comfort of all, Triangle Transit prohibits concealed weapons or hazardous materials; graffiti or other destruction of property; loud unruly behavior; profanity or abusive language; audio listening without headphones; smoking; transporting illegal drugs; eating and drinking. If you notice any of this activity, alert a Triangle Transit employee as soon as possible or call 911 if the situation is warranted. If you see something, say something! It is our goal to make your travel as safe and comfortable as we can.

Bicycles
Bicycles are permitted for transport on all Triangle Transit buses. A special rack on the front of the bus enables two bikes to be secured safely in an upright position. Cyclist can load bikes quickly and easily. Bikes that are foldable may be carried onto the bus, however they must be stored in a carry-on bag to cover sharp edges, and must not protrude into the aisle space for the safety of others. There is no special license or additional fare for traveling with a bicycle.
